Supported Independent Living Vacancy Female Household | 40+ Years

Join a warm and welcoming Supported Independent Living (SIL) home designed for female NDIS participants aged 40 years and over. This recently refurbished four-bedroom home offers a supportive environment where independence, choice and wellbeing are encouraged every day.

The current resident enjoys an active and social lifestyle, including community outings, coffee catch-ups, walks and sharing plenty of laughs. This home would suit someone who values companionship, positive shared living and being part of a friendly household at a similar stage of life.

With personalised support available when needed, residents are encouraged to maintain their own routines while enjoying the benefits of a connected and inclusive home environment.
