Supported Independent Living — One Bedroom Available

A Supported Independent Living (SIL) vacancy is available in a quiet, newly renovated shared home in leafy Alexandra Hills. The home is conveniently located near public transport, shopping, medical services, dining options, and a gym with a swimming pool. It is also just five minutes from the Endeavour Foundation Learning and Lifestyle Hub, offering easy access to social and community programs.

This non SDA home suits NDIS participants aged 40 years and over who want to live as independently as possible, with support available when needed.

The current household includes one male and one female resident who value a calm and respectful living environment, with a balance of independence, quiet time and optional shared activities. Shared interests include cooking, music, arts and crafts, coffee outings, bookstore visits and watching AFL.
