Disability Accommodation on the Sunshine Coast

A rare opportunity is available to join a welcoming SIL home in Buderim. This newly built, fully accessible four-bedroom home combines modern comfort with personalised support tailored to your goals and needs. Enjoy spacious shared living areas, accessible design and inviting outdoor spaces designed to support independence and connection.

You will be joining three friendly mature-aged women who enjoy knitting, drawing, colouring, listening to music and staying active. Residents also enjoy community activities, social events, BBQs, watching television together and celebrating special occasions with friends.

If you are looking for a supportive home where you can build confidence, independence and valuable friendships, we would love to hear from you. Contact our Specialist Team on 1800 112 112 to learn more and discover whether this home is the right fit for you.
