Disability Accommodation in Nambour

We're inviting applications from NDIS participants aged 30 and over to join this welcoming Supported Independent Living home. Housemates enjoy a friendly and social environment, sharing community outings such as picnics, dining out, shopping, and visits to local clubs and pubs.

Housemates enjoy staying active through walking, exercise, ball sports, cycling, golf, and bowling. At home, residents often share meals together, enjoy Sunday picnics, and attend BBQs. Creative activities include arts and crafts, cooking, music, and watching YouTube. Residents are also supported to pursue their individual interests, which may include train outings, op-shopping, day programs, and other community-based activities.

Overall, this home offers a relaxed, social, and supportive environment where residents can enjoy meaningful connections, shared experiences, and the freedom to pursue their own interests and routines.
